East Chaldon

Dorchester

November 15th 1930

Dearst Katie

I thank you very much indeed for your both of parcels that I value extremely. I congratulate you very much. You sent them for me to read upon a very miserable day, with all fog and falling rain. All your papers read extremely well now they are in front. And in this matter (relating) of getting them out, you have won what we sought for. Again you can lay your boat open upon High Chaldon for the stairs in this course to read. For what do you matter —
I will meet you on Thursday as arranged — Yours ever

Richard
