The Newsletter is published three times a year, in April, July and November.

The editor (while reserving the right to select and edit) welcomes suggestions and contributions from all members.

Letters of general concern to the Society will be shared with the Committee as a whole, who will act as advisers. Will anyone writing to the Editor and Committee and not wishing for publication, please make this clear.

Extracts from the Newsletter are published on the Internet; any contributor not wishing material to be used in this way is asked to inform the Editor.

The views expressed by contributors to the Newsletter are their own, and should not be regarded as the official view of The Powys Society.
