My darling Isobel

When Born I heard from Belle Bernie Long Dead when I was with Bernie this very Longer dead & now Dorothy's Ashes today you are burying in Meanwood Churchyard. Now I recall your Aye: Age! & how Annesley who was grand: Dad ever so very good to me! I remember when I first arrival at Leeds to lecture & put my belongings in Cloak Room how the official there said "you have very few relatives in this city!" So to see Evelyn ... when I think of you [illegible] in my mind! Marjorie's associated in my mind, [illegible] of the Devil! purely with goodness!

Phyllis & I will be O so thrilled & excited to have you for the 3 days from the 10th to the 13th Yes.

Change at Ruabon and come via Llangollen and Corwen to Bala Junction & then on to Blaenau! Afron there ... out at Ffestiniog ... to Blaenau ... How you come to us at last!

Love from Phyllis

ever your old Jack
